BRENTWOOD.

Mrs. R. E. Hunt, wife of Mr. R. E. Hunt, made her church, the First Baptist, a present of a beautiful calendar clock. It was placed in the church Sunday. Rev. T. W. Watkins had a nice baptizing Sunday at Kirkman's Mission. Mrs. Anna B. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Nettie Cathey, is here from Chicago, Ill., visiting her mother. Mrs. T. W. Walker is in Franklin, Ky., visiting relatives and friends. She is greatly missed at her church. Brother R. E. Hunt held services Sunday at Arrington and preached at Patton's Chapel. He preached from Matt. 13:3 Text, Behold, the sower went forth to sow seeds. He preached a spiritual sermon and the services were concluded by Brother John Gentry of the M. E Church. We were indeed sorry to hear of so many Christian boys from our various churches going to training camps.

ROYAL SEND-OFF FOR SOLDIERS

The Negroes of Nashville and sur-130 eration were there to say good-bye.
